

COBALT COAST DIVE RESORT – GRAND CAYMAN

OCTOBER 12-19, 2013

$2189.00*

Per person double occupancy

Cobalt Coast Dive Resort is Grand Cayman's finest dedicated divers' resort. Located on the northwest shore of Boatswains Bay, facing Grand Cayman's famous North Wall. Set in a secluded residential area, it overlooks the Caribbean Sea.

The two-bedroom oceanfront suites have 2 separate bedrooms each with their own bathroom, 1 king bed and 1 room with 2 full size extra long beds, TV's, coffee makers and safes. WI FI access is available at no charge from the living room which has a sofa, wet bar, a large table and chairs. The rooms also have a patio or balcony. All rooms have A/C and ceiling fans.

The Caribbean Sea is only 125 feet from your front door. So you can enjoy unlimited shore diving. Grand Cayman has it all: steep, deep walls adorned with sponges and corals in a stunning array of colors, shallow reefs filled with schooling and solitary fish and small invertebrates, and wrecks featuring photogenic structures and curious marine residents. There's also the World's Best 12 Foot Dive - unique Stingray City. The Kittiwake is Grand Cayman's latest dive attraction. The former submarine rescue vessel has taken up vibrant residency along the northern tip of Seven Mile Beach. Watch as Goliath groupers patrol the ship's bottom and squirrelfish play among the decks.
